During the period under review abnormal high levels of volatility in cotton and yarn prices were observed and such high volatility in the market has never been witnessed before. The severe gas and electricity load shedding and rising trends of energy costs has further aggravated the position. The above factors together with deteriorating law and order situation, made it difficult to run the operations on the sound footings. Moreover, Global recession coupled with fragile economic conditions in United States and sudden decline in cotton prices worldwide has hit results of the industry. Consequently the Textile sector in the country as a whole remained under tremendous economic pressure. During this quarter, we remained under immense selling pressure and offered products at low rates to get rid of inventories.

In order to remain competitive through economy of scale and vertical integration of production facilities, merger petition of the Gulshan Spinning Mills Limited and Gulistan Spinning Mills Limited with Paramount Spinning Mills Limited as reported earlier has been filed with Honorable Sindh High Court (the Court). The matter is presently pending adjudication before the Court.

Future Outlook:

Though the cotton crop in the country is damaged by the Flood. However Cotton prices both in domestic and international markets are expected to remain in acceptable limits during the remaining quarters of the financial year. Moreover, present trend of increase in inflation, unpredictable abnormal hike in power costs and load shedding are likely to continue. All these factors may affect the profitability for the next quarter. In spite of these circumstances, the Management would be putting its best efforts to ensure continued growth, operational efficiency and optimum results for the Company and its valued stakeholders.
